EMILY TAFT DOUGLAS

Senator's Wife Honors H. Shuder in Guest Lecture

Emily Taft Douglas, wife of Paul H. Douglas, senior senator from Illinois will be the guest speaker in the first of a forum series dedicated to the Harry A. Schuder Memorial and sponsored by the Pacific Unitarian Church of Torrance.

The address will be given in the campus theater at El Camino College, Feb. 16 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Douglas' subject is entitled "The Past is a Prologue."

Featured at the event will be the unveiling of a bust of Dr. Schuder, a founder of the Torrance Unitarian Church, by Marcus White.

A former congresswoman, Mrs. Douglas has served on the foreign affairs committee, on the UNRRA committee, and as an advisor to the U.S. delegation to the fifth conference of UNESCO in Paris.

She is the author of "Appleseed Farm" and has appeared with her husband on radio and television.

Dr. Peter Pinto is chairman of the Harry A. Schuder Memorial committee. Tickets may be obtained by calling FR 5-7304.

Noted Author, Missionary to Speak Sunday

Dr. Oswald J. Smith, one of the world's leading missionary statesmen, will be the pulpit guest at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, at First Baptist Church of Torrance, 2118 Carson St., according to the Rev. Morgan Gates, pastor.

Dr. Smith has ministered in 66 countries, composed more than 600 hymns, and written 25 books with a combined circulation of more than a million copies in 30 languages. Among his best known hymns are "Then Jesus Came," "God Understands," and the "Glory of His Presence."

For 25 years he served as pastor of People's Church, Toronto, Ont. Dr. Smith is currently devoting his major time to missionary interests and his printed-page ministry which he will discuss in a report of the world picture in missions.

The Rev. Gates noted that Billy Graham is quoted as referring to Dr. Smith as "symbolizing world-wide evangelism."

While in California, Dr. Smith is heard each Sunday at 8 a.m. over KTLA-TV, on a new and discussion program entitled "World Conquest."
